Key Lime Squares

Courtesy of Crazy Sista Cooking
By Lucy Anne Buffett

Do you enjoy baking? Especially around the holidays? I like to take my favorite receipes, bake, freeze and give them out to all my co-workers, relatives and friends. This one screams Key West! Enjoy!!

Makes 10 – 12 Squares

Ingredients – Crust

- ¼ Cup sliced blanched almonds
- 2 Cups all-purpose flour
- ¼ tsp almond extract
- 2 Sticks butter, softened
- 1 Tbl powdered sugar

Ingredients – Key Lime Filling

- 5 Eggs
- Pinch of salt
- ½ tsp orange zest
- 2 Cups granulated sugar
- ¾ Cup Key Lime Juice
- ¼ Powdered sugar for topping

Instructions:

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees.
2. Using a mini-food processor, chop almonds into a fine meal.
3. In a large mixing bowl or food processor, combine almonds, butter, flour, 1 tablespoon powdered sugar, and almond extract. Blend into a thick pastry and pat into the bottom of a well-greased 8x12-inch baking dish.
4. Bake crust for 15 minutes. Remove from oven and reduce oven temperature to 325 degrees.
5. To prepare filling, beat eggs. Add granulated sugar, salt, lime juice, and orange zest. Mix thoroughly.
6. Pour filling over partially baked crust and return to oven.
7. Bake 20 to 30 minutes or until filling is set.
8. Remove from oven and cool.
9. Sift remaining powdered sugar over the top and cut into squares.

Tip: You can find Key Lime Juice, bottled in most grocery stores.
